Gen. Taylor arrived at Camargo on the 8th. On the 9th he re-viewed the troops in the town, consisting of 3,000 regulars under the immediate command of Gen. Worth.

The volunteers had just begun pouring into Camargo by land and by river. Capt. Duncan's artillery and a portion of McCnllock's rangers were to leave Camargo in the direction of the mountains. It was regarded by the letter writers rather as an expedition for reconnoitering, rather than as an advance of the army. Capt. McCullock left Camargo on the 4th August, for China, 60 miles farther up on the San Juan. He entered the place at daylight on the 5th. the Mexicans under Col. Seguin, having abandoned it during the night, although having a superior force. McCullock remain ed 25 hours in Seguin's quarters, when he returned to Camargo.

REFORM OF THE CONSTITUTION. -The vote for the convention has been carried not yet in, but enough have came to hand to show that the question is safe.

In speaking of the duties that the convention will have to perform, Mr. JOHN Person, suggests through the State Reg. ister, the following subjects as worthy the attention of that body.

1. In abolishing the council of revision. 2. In the election of judges by the peo.

3. In the election of officers for short periods of time. 4. In the inteligibility of judges while in office to any other posts. 5. In fixing the per diem allowance of members.

6. In cutting down the number of members in both houses.

7. In inhibiting the legislature from borrowing money, (excepting sums in cases of emergency) unless the proposition the time to be fixed in the constitution. But thereto the parties do not agree-1. In the abolition of banks. 5. In regard to the necessity and power to be given to corporations. 3. In regard to cutting loose entirely from English laws and in enacting laws state of society.

4. In the unqualified abolition of the English Chancery practice.

5. In the propriety of electing sheriffs for only two terms, and then to require mare the subject public. them to settle up their business before they can be eligible to the same office.

6. In the manner of taxation or the objects and property to be taxed.

7. In claiming the common law in relation to females, allowing them in certain cases to hold and bequeath personal property. In a word Mr. Editor, the two parties do not agree in some minor points; but a vast majority agree in the necessity of amending a defective constitution, and will go for a convention, save and excepting always the abolitionists who are not for a convention now.

DEATH OF BISHOP FENWICK .- The Boston Transcript of the 11th, says:--"It venerable and Right Rev. Benedict Fen. wick, Catholic Bishop of Boston, died at his residence in Franklin street, this morning, at half past 11 o'clock, after a ly asservating that it is imported from a foreign protracted illness of many months. His country waten is not the case. All these decephis sences to the last moment of his life, purport to be tike to s in substance. and he died a peaceful and easy death universally lemented by a community in which he had few enemies. His age was sixty four years."

The Right Rev. John Fitzpatrick, Bishop Fenwick's successor, as Bishop of Boston is a native of Boston, and is only ed upon the duties of his office.

READER, we seriously assure you that D. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is performing the most astonishing cures of Consumption that has ever been effected. You may think this an extravagant assertion; but it certainly is nothing more than simple truth,-proof of which, from the most respectable living witnesses, is daily tendered to the proprietor, and the certificates and testimonials which are voluntarily given, if published, would fill an entire newspaper.
